MUDDY JUNGLE RIVERS

A River Assault Boat Cox'n's Memory Journey of His War in Vietnam and Return Home

by Wendell Affield

I could speak at length here about the merits of Muddy Jungle Rivers: its eloquence, its emotional generosity, its urgent and haunting prose. But the book's enduring virtue is that it records, with utmost fidelity, the unspeakable horrors of the author himself, as a young man adrift in the moral chaos of war."

MAITREYA'S MISSION

Volume 1

by Benjamin Creme

"A tour de force of commentary on social, religious and metaphysical matters," the Midwest Book Review says of Benjamin Creme's three-volume series, Maitreya's Mission.

The most important event in history is now unfolding, Creme says. A group of enlightened teachers, the Masters of Wisdom—who have guided humanity from behind the scenes for millennia—are returning to the everyday world. At their head is Maitreya, the World Teacher, the one expected under various names by many religious traditions. Together they will inspire profound changes in all aspects of society, ushering humanity into a new age of sharing, justice and peace for all.

Maitreya's Mission, Volume One, presents information on Maitreya's public emergence, his work and teachings, and life ahead in the New Age.

Volume Two includes Maitreya's accurate forecasts of world events and his miraculous appearances to groups and individuals worldwide.

Volume Three offers a vision of the next millennium: a world at peace; the necessities of life guaranteed for everyone; a new Science of Light creating new sources of energy, a restored environment and advanced medical marvels—all inspired by Maitreya and the Masters.
